All applicants who have been offered admission to MUST undergraduate programs will automatically be considered for admission scholarships. There is no need for you to submit a separate application for it. The scholarships are awarded based on applicants' academic performances, such as the results from admission examinations and public examinations, as well as the quota of the scholarship. Recipients will be notified of the awards together with the acceptance results.

For students who are awarded with scholarship, there will be related description on their Acceptance Letter. Meanwhile, students can also check the column of "Scholarship / Grants" on the OAS>Acceptance

Result page for related details. For students who do not get any scholarships, the column of "Scholarship / Grants" will be blank or not be shown.

The University has various Scholarships or Grants for students, please refer to the University Website > scholarships for details. For further details about the scholarships during the study period, please refer to Student Affairs Office.

Notes for Admission/In-person Registration

17. I am non-local. Do I need to apply for the Visa for studying in Macao? Where can I get the information?

According to the stipulation of Macao Special Administrative Region, all students NOT holding Macao ID are required to apply for "Special Authorization to Stay" (a.k.a. "Student Visa") for studying at the Residence and Stay Affairs Department of Macao Public Security Police Force. For details, please visit the website of the Residence and Stay Affairs Department of the Macao Public Security Police Force at https://www.gov.mo/en/services/ps-1479/, or consult with the relevant institution or department directly.

18. I am unable to arrive on campus and complete the in-person registration in late August as scheduled by the University. Can I complete the in-person registration a few days later?

All students who have successfully completed the online registration are requested to complete in-person registration at MUST during the designated period in late August. For those students who are able to enroll in September 2026 but are unable to arrive on campus and attend the in-person registration during the designated period due to special circumstances, they can apply for Late In-person Registration within the designated application period. The latest information about Late In-person Registration can be accessed as follows:

- After receiving the notice of making appointment for in-person registration in early August, students can login to Student Portal / WeMust Student APP > Application > Teaching & Learning (Registration), and indicate whether or not you can complete the in-person registration on time on the "Make Appointment for In-person Registration" page. For students who are unable to do that may check the latest information about late in-person registration (please pay attention to requirement, application period, and application fee). Upon acknowledgement, students who meet the conditions may submit application for late in-person registration online as instructed.
- Reminder 1: Applicants must apply for late in-person registration with valid reasons; and the applicants should choose the earliest date they can in order to complete all the admission procedures. Because many important admission procedures can only be attended after the new students have completed some of the designated procedures (especially the verification of registration documents in-person). If owing to personal reasons, registration/enrollment is done after the start of the semester, the student will be personally responsible and bear the consequences that may arise.
- Reminder 2: For those students who fail to apply for late in-person registration within the designated period, or those students who have been approved for late in-person registration but fail to complete the registration and verification procedures, or fail to complete the procedures as scheduled, they may be deemed to have automatically given up the eligibility for admission, and the paid fees will not be refunded, transferred, or retained; All fees paid will not be refunded/transferred/retained.

19. I am not able to enroll in this academic year, can I defer admission until the next academic year?

Students who meet the conditions can apply for "Defer Admission" via OAS within the designated period. Details are as follows:

- New students who have paid the tuition fees but need to defer admission to the next academic year (September 2027) must complete online application procedure on or before August 31, 2026 (before the class commencement day of the 2026/2027 academic year), and the submitted application will take effect when the application documents pass the verification process.

  Remark: Starting from the class commencement day, i.e. September 1, 2026, applications or submissions will no longer be accepted. Applications with incomplete procedures or missing the required valid supporting documents will not be processed.
- Application for deferring admission can only be applied once. If the application for deferring admission is approved, the applicant's scholarship qualification will no longer be retained or transferred.
- For details of application method, important notes, and fee policy, please login to the "Confirm to Accept the Offer of Admission" page of OAS and click the important notes about Defer Admission application at the bottom of the page.

20. What are the tuition fee, accommodation fee and general living expenses?

The total expenses for non-local students first academic year including tuition fee of HKD163,000-206,000 (Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery is HKD258,000), accommodation fee of HKD40,000-49,800 and living expenses of HKD40,000. For tuition fees and dormitory fees, please refer to the University website > Admission > Tuition Fees for details. Please also pay attention to the latest announcements of the University.

21. Will the University arrange dormitory for all non-local students?

Under normal circumstances, pre-university students, first-year and second-year undergraduates are required to reside in the University's dormitories. Third-year undergraduates are guaranteed accommodation in the University's student dormitories. For more details, please refer to the "Dormitory Resident Guide."

- The University will arrange accommodation for those non-local freshmen who have already completed the payment of dormitory fee; therefore, new students do not need to apply by themselves.
- Please refer to the University website for dormitory details, and refer to the "Fee Table for Dormitory" for related charges.

22. How and when can I apply for Credit Transfer?

Generally, students who have completed courses in a higher education program in other universities or in other higher education institutions which are recognized by the University can apply to the respective Faculty Office for credit transfer before the commencement of classes in the first year of study. For details, please refer to the related acceptance documents.

23. I'm unable to enroll after paying the tuition fees, what should I do to inform the University? Can I apply for a refund?

Students who meet the conditions can apply for "Cancel Admission" via OAS within the designated period. Details are as follows:

- Applicants who want to cancel admission must complete the designated online application procedure on or before August 31, 2026 (before the commencement day of the 2026/2027 academic year) as required; the completed application will take effect once submitted.
  Remark: Starting from the class commencement day i.e. September 1, 2026, applications or submissions will no longer be accepted. Applications with incomplete procedures or missing the required valid supporting documents will not be processed.
- For details of application method, important notes, and fee policy, please login to the "Confirm to Accept the Offer of Admission" page of OAS and click the important notes about Cancel Admission application at the bottom of the page.
- Applicant can apply for cancellation of admission due to "Special Reasons" or "Other Personal Reasons".
