

SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH TRAINING SESSIONS FOR POSTGRADUATE STUDENTS

INTRODUCTION TO THE STATISTICAL PACKAGE FOR SOCIAL SCIENCES (SPSS) FOR NON-SPECIALISTS

19 February to 30 April, 2014

Who can attend?	Any postgraduate student of MUST (priority given to doctorate students).
How much does it cost?	Nothing; it is free.
Where is it held?	Educational Development Centre, Room N406, Floor 4, inside the University Library.
What language is used?	English.
When does it run?	Every Wednesday evening, 7.00–9.30 pm, 9 sessions.
When does it start?	Wednesday 19 February, 7.00–9.30 pm.
Who is the course convenor?	Professor Keith Morrison.
Must I attend every session?	No; you can attend any or all sessions as you wish. All sessions are voluntary.
Are there exams?	No, there is no assessment.
Where can I get further information?	Check your email or your Faculty Office, or contact Ms. Keitha Wong: ☎ 8897 2261. Email: edc@must.edu.mo st Wong@must.edu.mo
What is the program?	Check your email for details or contact Keitha Wong.
How do I register?	Contact Keitha Wong.
Bonus:	A Certificate of Participation , listing every session you attend.
Special feature:	No prior knowledge of SPSS needed. Suitable for people who are scared of statistics.