Documentary Film Making

Course Introduction 課程簡介

In this workshop attendants will have a firm grip on the basic ropes of producing a documentary. The sessions will encompass documentary history and different approaches to storytelling, creativity, research and planning, equipment, budgeting, pre-production, crew as well as filming, editing and post-production. During the course of this workshop attendants (depending on number) will be divided into teams (or one team) and will produce a documentary from scratch.

Learning Objectives 教學目標

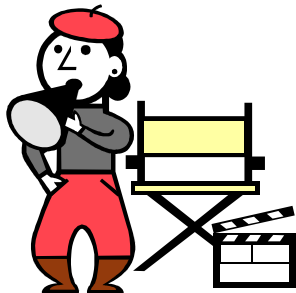

After this workshop, attendants will have a film grip of what a documentary is all about as well as the necessary knowledge tools to start their own documentary projects.

Course Outline 課程大綱

A hands on workshop with quite some interaction between the students, including film presentations, working sessions and group exercises.
