

Guidelines for Postgraduate Admission Examination 2023/2024

1. Qualification for Examination

Not all applicants will have the opportunity to take the admission examination. Applicants must complete all application procedures within the specified period before entering the initial assessment process. After the initial assessment, according to the needs of each program, respective Faculty/Institute will select appropriate applicants who need to take the admission examination to decide whether to accept. The acceptance results will be suggested by the admission team of respective Faculty/Institute according to the candidates' academic background and examination performance.

2. Mode of Examination

Please refer to the Examination Outlines.

3. Arrangement for Examination

Candidates who meet all of the following criteria will be arrangement to participate in an admission examination. Related arrangement and location will be announced through the Online Application System:

- ✓ Complete all application procedures
- ✓ Passed the initial assessment/ re-assessment
- ✓ Selected by respective Faculty/Institute

Remarks:

1. Arrangements for each candidate are different. Candidates should log in to the Online Application System to check the examination details.
2. Under normal circumstances, candidates are not allowed to apply for changes to the examination date or location after the announcement of the examination. There is no re-sit for the examination. In any case, the absence of the examination is considered as abandonment of admission.
3. If the admission examination cannot be conducted as normal due to special circumstances, such as the impact of the covid-19 epidemic, the examination arrangements may be adjusted accordingly.

※ The University has the final decision for all admission examination arrangements, all information is subject to the University latest announcement. ※
