

Department:	School of Business
Course Name	Legal Environment of Business
Hours per week	3
Number of Credits	3
Course Description	This course is designed to assist undergraduate business students in gaining understanding of important legal principles and laws which affect business—that is, the “legal environment” in which business operates. During the course a wide range of legal topics which impact many different aspects of business will be examined. Increased knowledge of legal and regulatory issues will help students make better business decisions.