

Department:	School of Business
Course Name	Logistics and Transportation Management
Hours per week	3
Number of Credits	3
Course Description	This course is designed to introduce the latest concepts and applications in the field of logistics and supply chain management. To accomplish this, lecture material includes practical examples, solved questions, and cases studies in: inventory management, network planning, supply contracts, bullwhip effect, logistics and transportation, push and pull systems, distribution strategies, and strategic alliances. The goal of this course is to help students understand both managerially and analytically about the entire operations and supply processes in logistics and supply chain management.