

Department:	Faculty of Information Technology
Course Name	Software Engineering
Hours per week	4
Number of Credits	4
Course Description	This course introduces the methods, technologies and management of software development. It covers software life cycle, software processes, requirements engineering and system modeling, UML, software design, software testing and maintenance, object-oriented software engineering, managing software projects, computer aided software engineering, reverse engineering and Re-engineering, etc.