

| | |
|---------------------------|--|
| Department: | School of Business |
| Course Name | Intermediate Macroeconomics |
| Hours per week | 3 |
| Number of Credits | 3 |
| Course Description | This course aims to introduce macroeconomic theories and shed light on developments in macroeconomic research and policy analysis. This course will cover important topics in labor market and unemployment, consumption and investment, economic growth and business cycle, money supply and inflation, monetary and fiscal policies, macroeconomics for open economies, and macroeconomic policy debates. |